

LATE NEWS

TWO township community leaders and 23 students leaders were taken into custody in the Burmese border town of Tachilek at 11.00 pm last night according to sources in Rangoon.

The sources who called Bangkok this morning identified the township community leaders as U Zaw Min and U Yin Htun. The student leaders were not identified but were said to belong to highschool and university student unions.

No further information was available at press time as to the whereabouts or the fate of the 25 taken away by the army. Rangoon sources fear that they might have already been executed.

1 TN880919

04/1988/118/0003

11880919

TWO township community leaders and 23 students leaders were taken into custody in the Burmese border town of Tachilek at 11.00 pm last night according to sources in Rangoon. The sources who called Bangkok this morning identified the township community leaders as U Zaw Min and U Yin Htun. The student leaders were not identified but were said to belong to highschool and university student unions. No further information was available at press time as to the whereabouts or the fate of the 25 taken away by the army. Rangoon sources fear that they might have already been executed.

LATE NEWS